

Path to become a Salvation Army Officer

Called by God as a soldier

Participates actively in Corps;
takes part in Vocational Fellowship

Contacts his/her Corps Officer;
files an application for Candidateship.

Be preliminary approved and accepted by the Candidates Board.

Completes required evaluation, procedures,
courses and interviews.

Passes the assessment of
the Command Candidates' Board;

Openly accepted as a Candidate

Completes courses for Candidates,
continues equipment for Corps services,
and submits the application form for Cadetship.

Passes the final assessment of
the Command Candidates' Board.

Openly welcomed as a Cadet

Receives 2 years of officer's training at the Officers Training College.

Commissioned as a Salvation Army Officer
and accepts appointments