救世軍 The Salvation Army
南泰長者中心
Nam Tai Centre for Senior Citizens

Services Introduction

The Salvation Army is an International Christian church and charity. With the commitment to transforming lives, caring for people and making disciples, we have started to serve Hong Kong since 1930. We strive to respond to local needs, emergencies and disasters with the love of God. Our work spans a diverse range of area including, but not limited to, people with spiritual needs, families facing crisis, disadvantaged elders, children and youth, people with disabilities, the marginalized minorities and disaster survivors.

Tai Hang Tung Integrated Service for Senior Citizens

Composed of Nam Shan Residence for Senior Citizens, Nam Ming Haven for Women, and Nam Tai Centre for Senior Citizens. It operates in an integrated mode and provides one-stop "Continuum of Care" services. It includes residential care and community support services.

Purposes and Objectives

Nam Tai Centre is a type of community support services serving as a neighbourhood base for community network of informal support and formal social services provided to elderly persons living in the community.

Goal

The ultimate goal of Nam Tai Centre for Senior Citizens is to enable elderly persons to continue to stay in the community, to lead a healthy, respectful and dignified life, to enhance their positive and contributory role and to involve the public to build up a caring community.

Target Service Users

Nam Tai Centre for Senior Citizens serve elderly persons aged 60 or above residing in the respective Districts as delineated by Sham Shui Po District Council boundary. We provide support to formal and informal carers who take full-time or part-time care of elderly persons, and to provide educational and developmental programmes to the community at large.

Nature of Service

Nam Tai Centre for Senior Citizens provide a range of comprehensive services including dementia care services to elderly persons, carers and the community at large, as stipulated in the Specifications on Re-engineering Community Support Services for Elders.

Health education and healthy life-style promotion

- Co-ordinating/organizing groups, activities and programmes on healthy and active ageing promoting physical and psycho-social well-being of elders.

Educational and developmental services

- Co-ordinating/organizing groups, activities and programmes to meet the educational and developmental needs of the elders and help sustain lifelong learning.

Volunteer mobilization

- Mobilizing senior volunteers to serve the community by conducting groups, activities and programmes on volunteer training and assisting them in the delivery of volunteer services.

Information and referral centres on community resources

- Information giving activities, e.g. talks on new services or introductions of new services facilities in the locality to improve elders' accessibility to community resources through establishing linkage and cooperative relationship with government departments, non-governmental organizations, and private sector service providers. Referrals for elders to other welfare service units, medical and health sector or government departments for tangible services including accommodation assistance, social security assistance, home-based support services and medical and health services, etc.

Social and recreational services

- Social and recreational groups or activities to meet the social and recreational needs of elders;

Elders' involvement in service operation

- Involving and empowering the elders in the service planning and programmes implementation of the centre.

Serving frail elders

- Providing formal or volunteer services, including those home-based and centre-based, to frail elders who require supervision and some advice on their daily living but not nursing care.

Reaching out and networking

- Organizing activities and programmes on outreaching and social networking for vulnerable elders who are frail, living alone or lacking family support.

Counselling service

- Providing counselling services to the needy elders and their families for their psychological well-being.

Carer support service

- Providing support services for carers including setting up a carer resource corner for storing video, reference materials and rehabilitative aids (for demonstration purpose and on-loan), conducting mutual-help groups, and organizing activities and programmes to alleviate their stress.

Meal service

- Providing meals to be taken in the centre for the needy elders through appropriate arrangements.

Drop-in centre

- Drop-in centre for social gathering and early identification of service needs of individual elders.
